

You may be eligible to participate in a research study on predictors of diet quality in teens with an intellectual or developmental disorder.

In order to participate in this research study, you must:

- Speak and write fluent English
- Have a child with an intellectual or developmental disability
- Child must be aged 11-19 and able to speak, read, and understand English

Download a free QR code reader and scan the QR code below to be directed to our screening survey. The survey can also be taken via phone or email.

Compensation provided.

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR TO ENROLL, CONTACT: KELSIE FORBUSH, PH.D., PRINCIPAL INVESTIGATOR

eatstudy@ku.edu

Please refer to the “Diet Quality” study in the subject line of your email

(785) 864-8830

Participation is voluntary and your answers will be kept confidential. If you are eligible and decide to participate, your participation will include three online surveys that will be separated by three months (i.e., first survey, second survey three months later, third survey three months after the completion of the second survey). Each survey will take approximately one and a half hours to complete. The total time commitment will be four and a half hours over six months. If you complete these surveys, you will receive $10 for the first survey, $15 for the second survey, and $20 for the final survey.